

Father, I thank You for all that You are in my life. I praise You for my life, for Your mercy, goodness and everlasting love for me.

I surrender to You, my heart, my emotions, my body, my mind, my weakness, and my spirit. I surrender every relationship, every fear, doubt, confusion, my hurts and disappointments.

I trust You to make everything in my life whole and complete, nothing missing and nothing lacking. I empty myself, and surrender to Your perfect will for my life.

I deposit my life into Your care, for Your use, to do with my life as You choose.

Holy Spirit, You are the source of love, hope, peace, patience, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, humility, and self-control.

Purify my desires. Help me to open my heart to You in a deeper and transparent way.

I draw upon every spiritual resource that You have provided me and I come against the strongholds and plans of the enemy that have been put in place against me.

Help me to walk in the victory of the new creation. I know that it is Your will that I should stand firm and resist all of the enemy's work against me.

Enable me to resist the devices of the enemy.

Enable me to stand upon Your Word and resist all the accusations, distortions, or condemnations that will try to cause me to give up.

I surrender myself completely to You, Lord.

I choose to walk in Your Word. In faith, I receive every promise and every victory today.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.
